

Cheryl,

We've had alot
of fun times this year
and boy this is going to be a wild summer.

Don't get too drunk HA I Know you don't drink. Don't ever change Cheryl and remember don't remind me of that unfortunate evening over at Katie's.

Jane

Cheryl,
Hey, I can't even
spell your name right!!!!
Ok well - hasn't this been a great old year and now
we're seniors and pretty soon we'll graduate and then we'll get married & have kids & then we'll die and aren't I depressing!?!
Anyhow - have fun this summer
and be good if you want to!
Love ya,
Anne

There is . . . . .
    . . . a time to be born, and a time to die,
    a time to break down, and a time to build up;
    a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
    a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
    a time to love, and a time to hate;
    a time for great things, and a time for small things;
    a time for some things, and a time for all things;
This is our time . . . . . the time for us.
                                    - Old Testament -

Dedication

Mr. Georg was born February 22, 1931 in South Bend, Washington. He graduated from Lebam High School in 1949. During the Korean War, he was a member of the Marine Corps. He attended Centralia Junior College, Grays Harbor Junior College, and graduated from Western Washington State College in 1958. He came to Elma Grade School in the fall of 1958 and moved to Elma High School in the fall of 1964. He received his fifth year of college from Western, and has started his masters at University of Oregon.

Mr. Georg is the head track coach, and Freshman Football Coach. He teaches World Problems, and Social Problems, and is the Senior class advisor.

We, the Annual Staff, and the Associated Student Body, dedicate this annual to you, Mr. Georg.

Handwritten notes in the top right corner, possibly a list or a set of instructions, written in a cursive script.

Handwritten notes in the top left corner, continuing the cursive script, possibly a continuation of the list or instructions.

Handwritten notes in the middle right section, appearing as a separate entry or a different part of the document.

Handwritten text in Urdu script, likely a list or notes, written in green ink on a light background. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be underlined or grouped together. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat slanted.
